Summer Fayre

It was wonderful to see our Catholic community in Stone come together in fellowship, joy and love for the Summer Fayre.

It was a great day to celebrate Fr Doyle's birthday too—thankyou for all the good wishes and gifts.

Huge thanks to the fundraising team, and volunteers on the day, who worked so hard to make the day such a success.

Thanks to everyone who supported the event and generous donations towards the Church's use of the social centre.

Congratulations to all our bakers and well done to winners Helena (Junior) and Emma Barber (Adult), and Ivan Forster winner of Peter Rabbit.

The raffle for the Malt Whisky will be drawn at coffee café—last chance for a ticket!

CAFOD World Wide Petition to Cancel the Third World Debt Please Help!

54 Countries are facing debt distress. Many are forced to repay debt to big banks and wealthy nations and therefore neglect their own needs for maintaining health provision, education, sewage & water infrastructure and coping with droughts and floods.

Often countries have repaid their original debts once, but are still paying due to extortionate interest rates and unscrupulous tactics. CAFOD invites you to sign their petition with others all over the world.

There are copies at the back of church this weekend or you can sign on line using the QR code.
